

VVM celebrates Founders' Day

NT KURIOCITY

Vidya Vikas Mandal's (VVM), Founders' Day was celebrated to pay tribute to the founders and their vision. The celebrations were organised by Vidya Vikas Academy, Comba-Margao. The function commenced with an invocation dance. The president of VVM Nitin Kunkolienker then spoke about embracing the emerging trends, incorporating modern thought processes and moving towards a futuristic approach of education. He insisted on the importance of integrity, honesty and discipline.

The chief guest, retired member of Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs Sheila Sangwan (IRS) emphasised the need of encouraging students to pursue civil services to serve the state and nation.

The alumni, Ph.D holders, and the retired staff of different institutions of VVM were felicitated for their commendable achievements.