

Vidya Vikas Mandal jubilates on the occasion of Founders' Day.

Founders' Day celebrated with great zest and elation at Vidya Vikas Mandal.

Vidya Vikas Mandal's (VVM), Founders' Day was celebrated on Tuesday, 1st August 2023, with enthusiasm and exuberance to pay tribute to the founders and their vision. The Mandal was registered on August 1, 1971 to venerate the death anniversary of educationist and freedom fighter, Lokmanya Bal Gangadhar Tilak. The celebrations were organised by Vidya Vikas Academy, Comba- Margao.

The function commenced with an invocation dance followed by the lighting of the ceremonial lamp. The President of Vidya Vikas Mandal, Mr. Nitin Kunkolienker addressed the gathering about embracing the emerging trends, incorporating modern thought processes and moving towards a futuristic approach of education. He insisted on the importance of integrity, honesty and discipline.

The Chief Guest, Ms Sheila Sangwan (IRS), retired member of Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs, pitched through her discourse the beautiful message that VVM has in its motto; of realizing one's self-actualisation through the recognition of self-potential to achieve and accomplish what we dream of. She emphasized the need of encouraging our students to pursue civil services as their career as to serve the state and nation.

The distinguished alumni, the Ph.D holders and the retired staff of different institutions of Vidya Vikas Mandal were felicitated for their commendable achievements.

VVM has taken all these years of dedication, solitary commitment to create the distinctive aura, reputation and achieve outstanding results and this was highlighted through a short presentation in the program. The eventful day came to an end with a formal vote of thanks proposed by honorary Secretary of Vidya Vikas Mandal, Shri Madhukar Mallya, followed by a rendition of the National Anthem.
